ART IN YOUR EYE 2010 FINE ART POSTER

2010 Poster features Batavia artist Greta Bell

BATAVIA, Illinois (June 16, 2010) – The sixth annual Art In Your Eye Festival in Batavia, to be held August 14 and 15 at the Batavia Riverwalk, is pleased to launch the sale of its 2010 fine art poster. This high-quality, framable poster, sixth in an annual series, features the painting “Bellevue” by Batavia artist Greta Bell. The original painting was purchased by the Art In Your Eye Festival and will be on permanent display at Batavia City Hall as part of the City Art Collection.

Greta Bell is a self taught artist who lives in Batavia with her family and is a resident artist at Water Street Studios. She especially enjoys creating paintings of buildings in Batavia and “Bellevue” is of Bellevue Place, the historic structure located at Union Avenue and Jefferson Street. Bell's artwork can be viewed at her Website: gretabell.com.

The 18” x 24” poster is being sold at the price of $10. Festival donors of $50 or more will receive a complimentary poster. The printing of the poster was generously donated by BFC Integrated Print Management of Batavia. The poster can be purchased at the following locations during their business hours:
